

Wine Spectator

TASTING HIGHLIGHTS

9 Bright California Whites

Tasting Highlights' wine reviews are fresh out of the tasting room, offering a sneak peek of our editors' most recent scores and notes to WineSpectator.com members.

"California is a fantastic region for discovering new white grapes and wine styles."

By Aaron Romano. Posted April 6th, 2020.

Alma de Cattleya 2019 Sauvignon Blanc

Shows terrific intensity, opening with honeysuckle, pear and melon flavors, revealing a tangy side of Meyer lemon juice. Refreshing and fragrant through the finish. —M.W. 90 points.