

Wine Spectator

TASTING HIGHLIGHTS

13 Diverse California Values Up to 92 Points

Alma de Cattleya is a brand from Sonoma winemaker Bibiana González Rave. It offers affordable expressions like this week's top-scorer, a mouthwatering Sauvignon Blanc with lime blossom, passion fruit and Meyer lemon notes. It ferments in neutral oak barrels and stainless steel, which helps concentrate its flavors.

By Aaron Romano. Posted April 19th, 2021.

Alma de Cattleya 2020 Sauvignon Blanc

Mouthwatering and aromatic, with lime blossom, ruby grapefruit, passion fruit and Meyer lemon notes. There's a touch of saline for a savory edge, along with a distinctive body that's sleek, smooth and juicy. —M.W. 92 points.