

2022 Rosé of Pinot Noir

Sonoma County

Review by Jim Gordon

Tangy and fruity, this excellent light-bodied wine has more guts and grip than mane rosés, so it's good for lunch, cocktail hour and also dinner. Watermelon and cantaloupe waft to the nose, and crispy raspberry and apricot light up the palate.

92 Points