SONOMA: THE 2023S AND 2022S

2024 Alma de Cattleya Rosé of Pinot Noir (Sonoma County):

The 2024 Rose of Pinot Noir pours a lovely, cotton candy ink color and is a total charmer of a wine, with aromas of fresh grapefruit, salted citrus, bright pomegranate, and a zesty lift. The palate is highly refreshing and snappy, making it a fantastic wine that will disappear quickly at the table and in the market. Only 300 cases were produced.

2024 Alma de Cattleya Sauvignon Blanc (Sonoma County):

A pale silver/straw color, the 2024 Sauvignon Blanc is forward in the glass with aromas of guava, tropical flowers, candied grapefruit, and a muskier, floral perfume. With a lean to medium-framed feel on the palate, it's a refreshing and snappy wine to drink over the near term.

90 POINTS

2023 Alma de Cattleya Chardonnay (Sonoma County):

The 2023 Chardonnay is very appealing on the nose, with notes of fresh peach, citrus blossoms, zesty citrus, and wet stone. This medium-bodied white has a lovely, silky texture, although it cleanses the palate with fresh acidity and floral notes. It's showing exceptionally well now and is going to show its best over the next few years.

SONOMA: THE 2023S AND 2022S

2023 Alma de Cattleya Pinot Noir (Sonoma County):

A bright ruby color, the 2023 Pinot Noir is lifted by bright fruit and spice, featuring notes of cranberry, poppy red cherries, bright spices, and fresh herbs. A refreshing, medium-bodied wine, it's highly pleasurable now and boasts a refined, charming character, with fine tannins and ripe acidity. It's a delightful Pinot Noir now, but it should also drink well over the next several years..

91 POINTS

2023 Alma de Cattleya Cabernet Sauvignon (Sonoma County):

A medium red color, the 2023 Cabernet Sauvignon is entirely Cabernet Sauvignon, characterized by valley floor fruit with a straightforward and pure feel. It's lifted on the nose with notes of red cherries, hints of graphite, and fresh red flowers. It's medium-bodied, with fine but present tannins, and it's refreshing, making it a lovely wine to drink in the near term. 490 cases were produced.

90 POINTS

2023 Alma de Cattleya Syrah (Sonoma County):

The 2023 Syrah is fresh and pure on the nose with notes of fresh blackberries, pepper, and crushed stones. The palate is medium-bodied, with refined tannins and a fully dry feel, complemented by refreshing acidity. It's a total charmer and would be perfect for burger nights but can also be enjoyed on its own with potato chips.
